

Explanation of how the parts fit together:

The SIP is the overview. The Indicator Chart is a result of the school self-assessment as is the focus of the school's collaborative inquiry to support student learning. The Professional Learning Plan is the map of how the indicator chart - focus from the SEF Self-Assessment - will be accomplished.